THE VENUE

Winton House is a unique blend of castle, palace and a family home, and with its extensive gardens, it was cover perfect for this whimsical shoot.

With a magical, romantic ambience reflecting its rich, Renaissance history, Winton exudes a warm atmosphere developed over half a millennium.

As an exclusive use venue, Winton offers personal service and privacy; making it an ideal location your very own Scottish castle wedding.

Embellished silk tulle dress (£2,480), Rachel Scott Couture. Peach Berry Bouquet (£55), Rose and Calla lily hair wreath (£45), Natalie @ Lily & Lace

STAY STRONG

Laura created soft, flowing locks by using a Diva session wand with medium section, spraying each section with Elnett strong hold hairspray (from £2.39). She then brushed all hair through, finishing with Argan Secret shine mist (£14.95) to give a beautifully soft look. Dress the look up with light backcombing and a few braids, but keep it soft by retaining the natural tousled effect.

THE FLOWERS

Natalie at Lily & Lace always recommends seasonal flowers to brides, which helps to keep the cost down. The seasonal blooms used for the shoot were textured, which look great on the day and translated well in the images.

'Birsay Disc' Pendant (£76), Sheila Fleet – Scottish Designer Jewellery

'Butterfly' (£110), Ivory & Co

'Grable' (£159), Westend Wedding Boutique

ROSY TONES

Karen, kept this look matte for a natural finish. She used Dior Rosy Tan (£40) palette using a taupe eyeshadow with darker brown at the outer corners and under the eyes, blending for a diffused smokey look.

Opt for warm pinks or peaches on the cheeks such as Chanel Rose Petale (£31) or MAC Melba (£18), choosing a similar lip colour – Karen chose MAC Patisserie (£15).
